Nondiscrimination in Program and Services Delivery

Description: This module presents and reviews key aspects of the federal government's statutes, regulations, executive orders and policy guidelines established to prohibit unlawful discrimination in the delivery of USDA's programs and services.

Objectives: Upon completion of this module, you will be able to recognize and identify:

- The difference between federally assisted and federally conducted programs and activities.
- The major civil rights laws that prohibit unlawful discrimination by recipients of federal (USDA) financial assistance.
- USDA compliance requirements.
- Outreach requirements to better serve communities, particularly those communities under-served by USDA.

Listed below are the lessons associated with this module.

Lesson A Program Delivery Laws, Purpose and Structure
Lesson B Prohibited Discrimination in Program Delivery
Lesson C Compliance Requirements
Lesson D Program Outreach
